TO USE: Apart from using simply to acquire knowledge and meaning of individual planetary energies, you may combine randomly or intuitively planetary combinations of two or more according to (1) configurations in the sky at any significant time, (2) aspects in your birth chart, or (3) transits or progressions to planets in your chart. From here you can if you wish make keyphrases that have special meaning for you and/or others. Any of this you will find gives you insights into your personality - or into individual situations or collective events - present, past or upcoming. It may also set in motion subtle processes that eventually manifest or reveal things, or evade obstacles, which would not have been otherwise. Example: 9/11 on September 11th 2001 Saturn opposed Pluto > Order versus Extremism; Death of Structure; Structure Scandal; Powerful Affliction.
